The Cackalacky Cup

You thought the kids were having all the fun didn't you? This season we bring you the first ever NCICL coaches competition. The Saturday of every race we will hold an event in the Cackalacky Cup series. Each event is an event for points where the coaches of each team will represent their team in feats of daring do and bike skill prowess. At the end of the series we will tally the points and the winning team will bring home the Cackalacky Cup and have their team name enshrined on the cup for future generations to marvel at. This event is open to any registered level 1,2 or 3 coach. Sign up at the registration tent.

Cackalacky Cup round one: The ultra-mega foot down circle of death bike derby

Just like regular foot down except it starts with a LeMans start to the bikes. Once on their trusty steeds the coaches will ride in an ever-decreasing circle of spectators. Whomever exits the circle or puts their foot on the ground is out of the competition. The last coach who isn't standing wins.
